Trustee in Bankruptcy

8 UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
9 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
10 SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

11 In re
12 BENJA INCORPORATED, aka EPHE
13 CORPORATION,
14 Debtor.

Case No. 20-30819 DM
Chapter 7

15 A. KYLE EVERETT,
16 TRUSTEE IN BANKRUPTCY,
17 Plaintiff,
18 v.
19 THOMAS B. PETERS,
20 Defendant.

Adversary Proceeding No. 21-03060-DM

AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR AVOIDANCE AND RECOVERY OF PREFERENTIAL TRANSFER;
FRAUDULENT TRANSFER;
DISALLOWANCE OF CLAIM; AND DECLARATORY RELIEF

22
23 Plaintiff A. Kyle Everett, Trustee in Bankruptcy (“Plaintiff” or the “Trustee”) of the estate
24 of Benja Incorporated (“Benja” or the “Debtor”), aka EPHE Corporation, files this first amended
25 complaint against Defendant Thomas B. Peters (“Defendant” or “Peters”), and in support thereof
26 alleges as follows:

27 1. Benja is a Delaware corporation that filed a voluntary petition for relief under 28 Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code on October 15, 2020 (the “Petition Date”).

1           2.       The Trustee was appointed as the Chapter 11 trustee on November 3, 2020. The
2 Chapter 11 case was converted to Chapter 7 on January 29, 2021, and the Trustee was appointed
3 as the Chapter 7 trustee.

4           3.       This adversary proceeding seeks the avoidance and recovery of transfers from
5 Benja to Defendant made as a preference and as a part of a fraudulent scheme wherein Benja
6 defrauded creditors and investors to obtain funds used for the personal expenses and benefit of its
7 Chief Executive Officer, Andrew J. Chapin (“Chapin”), to pay obligations that arose from earlier
8 fraudulent transactions, and to continue and conceal the fraud.

9           4.       Plaintiff is informed and believes that Benja was a San Francisco-based e-
10 commerce startup company founded by Chapin, who served as Benja’s CEO from its founding
11 until at least September 2020.

12           5.       Plaintiff is informed and believes that Benja held itself out as a successful company
13 that had agreements with various retailers such as Backcountry, Columbia Sportswear, Fanatics,
14 New Balance, Nike, Patagonia, and Zappos, to drive consumer traffic to purchase goods from the 15 retailers, with Benja ostensibly to be compensated based on the number of impressions by 16 consumers of Benja’s advertising.

17           6.       Plaintiff is informed and believes that Chapin falsely represented to creditors and 18 investors that Benja generated millions of dollars in revenue and had large contracts with 19 numerous well-known national companies to place advertisements for their excess inventory.
20 Plaintiff is informed and believes that, in a plea agreement in his criminal case, Chapin admitted
21 that Benja had no such contracts with or revenue from these companies. Plaintiff is further
22 informed and believes that Chapin also admitted to forging contracts, fabricating or altering
23 documents that reflected revenue, using falsified documents, impersonating corporate 24 representatives, or causing their impersonation, to create the appearance of business relationships
25 and profitmaking opportunities that did not exist in order to obtain additional financing.

26           7.       Plaintiff is informed and believes that Chapin sought out loans and investors for 27 Benja, from which Chapin obtained funds to use for his personal expenses and benefit, to pay
28 obligations that arose from earlier fraudulent transactions, and to conceal Benja’s ongoing fraud.

8. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, and other than de minimis legitimate business transactions, Chapin operated Benja as a fraudulent scheme wherein Benja made payments to creditors and earlier investors from the proceeds of later, fraudulently obtained loans and investments, rather than from profits of the putative underlying business venture. This pattern of using new money from later fraudulent transactions to fund the fulfillment of earlier obligations constitutes a Ponzi scheme. The transfer of Benja's property to Defendant was pursuant to a Ponzi scheme and not related to any legitimate business transaction, because in fact no such legitimate profitmaking business existed.

9. Plaintiff is informed and believes that the transfer of Benja's property to Defendant was made as part of Benja's fraud, with the actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud Benja's creditors, or that the transfer was not for adequate consideration, as discussed below. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Benja incurred obligations for the purpose of acquiring funds necessary for the continuation of the fraud. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, later, Chapin caused the transfer of Benja's property to Defendant with the purpose of concealing the ongoing fraud.

10. Plaintiff requests that this Court grant relief avoiding and recovering transfer(s) totaling no less than $250,000, identified as the “Transfer” below, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 544, 547, 548, 550 and California Civil Code § 3439.04 et seq. Plaintiff seeks the disallowance of Defendant’s claim(s), if any, under 11 U.S.C. § 502(d). Plaintiff also seeks relief declaring that Benja was operated as a Ponzi scheme.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11. The Court has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 151, 157(a), 157(b)(2) and 1334, and under Rule 5011-1 of the Bankruptcy Local Rules for the Northern District of California.

12. This adversary proceeding is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A), (B), (F), (H), and (O).

13. This Court is the proper venue for this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1409(a), because the Debtor's Chapter 7 case is pending in this judicial district.

14. Plaintiff consents to entry of a final order and/or judgment by this Court.

1 PARTIES

2 15. Plaintiff is the duly appointed Chapter 7 trustee for the bankruptcy estate of Benja.
3 The Trustee is duly authorized and empowered to pursue any and all claims of the Debtor's estate.

4 16. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Peters is an individual residing in California
5 at 14 College Ct, Larkspur, CA 94939.

6 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

7 17. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant was an earlier investor in Benja
8 pursuant to a Simple Agreement for Future Equity (the "2019 SAFE") entered into on or about
9 December 16, 2019, in the amount of $50,000 for the right to certain shares of Benja's capital
10 stock.

11 18. On September 4, 2020, Chapin sent an e-mail to Defendant soliciting additional 12 investment. Chapin represented that Walmart had shown interest in Benja's shoppable commerce
13 unit that allegedly had been implemented in TikTok, and Walmart may be interested in joining 14 Microsoft's bid for Benja. Chapin further represented that Benja planned to expand its 15 arrangement with TikTok at a cost of $950,000 and hoped to raise additional investment from 16 Benja's group of existing investors to fund that effort. Plaintiff is informed and believes that these 17 representations were false and made to induce Defendant to invest in furtherance of the Benja
18 fraudulent scheme.

19 19. On September 9, 2020, Defendant sent an e-mail to Chapin to express his interest
20 in making a "much larger investment" in Benja, and asked to see a full diligence package,
21 including Benja's current balance sheet, capitalization table, and contracts, prior to the additional 22 investment.

23 20. Between September 9 and 10, 2020, Chapin sent to Defendant the putative
24 financial documents of Benja. Plaintiff is informed and believes that these documents were 25 falsified documents made to induce Defendant to invest in furtherance of the Benja fraudulent
26 scheme.

27 21. On September 10, 2020, Defendant e-mailed Chapin seeking clarification regarding 28 the balance sheet that Chapin sent to Defendant, which did not show any liabilities or debt despite

1 Defendant being aware of Benja’s obligations to Busey Bank and Empowerment Capital. On the
2 same day, Chapin replied to Defendant and represented that Benja had “[n]o obligations beyond
3 Busey and Empowerment.”

4       22.     On or about September 14, 2020, Benja entered into a Simple Agreement for 5 Future Equity (the “2020 SAFE”) with Peters, pursuant to which Peters purchased the right to 6 certain shares of Benja’s capital stock for $500,000.

7       23.     At or about the same time, on September 14, 2020, Joe Alouf (“Alouf”), Benja’s
8 Chief Financial Officer, participated in a call with two of Benja’s directors, Scott Sklar (“Sklar”) and 9 Nick Foppe (“Foppe”), and Alouf shared with Sklar and Foppe his concerns about Chapin and 10 Benja and his discovery of millions of dollars in undisclosed obligations that Chapin had caused 11 Benja to incur.

12       24.     On or about September 16, 2020, Alouf learned that Benja was in the process of 13 raising $1.5 million in equity, of which about $1 million had been funded.

14       25.     Plaintiff is informed and believes that on or about September 17, 2020, Defendant
15 made a wire transfer to Benja in the amount of $250,000 pursuant to the 2020 SAFE. In a text
16 message sent on September 17, 2020, Defendant explained that he would send the balance of the 17 $500,000 investment after he converted other securities to cash.

18       26.     At or about the same time, on September 17, 2020, Alouf participated in a
19 conference call with Benja’s board of directors and legal counsel to discuss his concerns about 20 Benja, particularly the certifications by Chapin to investors that Benja was not in default of any 21 loans. This certification was problematic, as loans from Busey Bank, Empowerment Capital, and 22 MHC Financial Services were in default at the time. Alouf demanded full access to Benja’s books
23 and records, so that he could begin the process of accurately presenting Benja’s financial condition
24 to lenders and investors.

25       27.     After Chapin failed to provide Alouf with access to Benja’s books and records by 26 the end of business day on September 17, 2020, Alouf sent an e-mail to Chapin and the other
27 parties who participated in the conference call to notify them of Chapin’s failure and that if Alouf
28 did not receive access to Benja’s books and records, Alouf could not continue with the company.

1 Chapin promptly replied to Alouf's e-mail purportedly accepting Alouf's "resignation," which
2 Alouf interpreted to mean that he was fired.

3 28. On September 18, 2020, Chapin sent a text message to Defendant informing him
4 that the wire transfer of $250,000 had not arrived. Defendant replied to Chapin: "It seems like 5 there's something pressing on you for funds."

6 29. Later on September 18, 2020, Chapin sent a text message to Defendant confirming 7 that Benja had received the $250,000 wire transfer.

8 30. On September 18, 2020, Defendant sent a text message to Chapin stated he "just 9 got a somewhat panicked [voicemail] from Michael Stern [at Empowerment Capital], said that 10 [Chapin] terminated [Alouf] yesterday. What's the situation there?"

11 31. As a result of Chapin's actions, Empowerment Capital accelerated its loan pursuant 12 to a notice dated September 18, 2020. Benja's legal counsel, Fenwick, thereafter advised Chapin
13 and Benja that if Alouf was not reinstated, Fenwick would withdraw as counsel. Benja's directors
14 also advised Chapin that they would resign. Other investors demanded Alouf's continued
15 involvement in the company.

16 32. On September 19, 2020, Chapin reinstated Alouf as Benja's CFO.

17 33. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, on or about September 22, 2020, Sklar and 18 Foppe were removed from or left Benja's board of directors.

19 34. On September 22, 2020, Pano Anthos e-mailed Chapin, and copied Defendant and 20 Alouf, to express his disapproval with Sklar and Foppe leaving Benja's board, stating that Chapin
21 "cannot be the only board member," and directed Chapin to "give [Alouf] the passwords and 22 usernames into the accounts."

23 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Alouf put in place an accounting control that
24 required two authorized signatures before a wire transfer could be made from Benja to third
25 parties. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that this control did not prohibit in-person
26 withdrawals/transfers to insiders, such as Chapin.

27

1           36.     On September 22, 2020, Chapin e-mailed Defendant the following: “Given how
2 much has changed in a material way, we will offer an opportunity to un-wind your [2020] SAFE
3 agreement, repurchasing for the full value that has been sent ($250,000.00).”

4           37.     Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant was on notice or had actual
5 knowledge of Benja’s apparent fraudulent activity and/or Ponzi scheme prior to obtaining Benja’s
6 offer to repurchase the 2020 SAFE for $250,000.

7           38.     On or about September 24, 2020, Chapin sent to Defendant the SAFE Repurchase
8 and General Release Agreement dated September 24, 2020 (the “Repurchase Agreement”),
9 agreeing that Benja would purchase the 2020 SAFE from Defendant for $250,000 in cash by wire
10 transfer to Defendant’s account.

11           39.     On September 25, 2020, Defendant e-mailed Chapin with redline revisions to the 12 Repurchase Agreement and stated: “I will execute this document and deliver to you with the 13 understanding that you may release it to the company and it will be in effect when the full amount 14 of $250,000 is received in my account at RBC Wealth Management. I commit to this agreement if 15 and only if the funds are received today.”

16           40.     Plaintiff is informed and believes that the Repurchase Agreement was never fully 17 executed but was fulfilled.

18           41.     Plaintiff is informed and believes that Alouf refused to authorize transfer of 19 $250,000 to Peters to repurchase of the 2020 SAFE from Defendant.

20           42.     Plaintiff is informed and believes that, in light of Alouf’s refusal, and in order to 21 effectuate the transfer of $250,000 from Benja’s account to Defendant for the purpose of 22 repurchasing the 2020 SAFE, Chapin personally went to the bank (Chase Bank) and caused Benja
23 to transfer the sum of $250,000 and additional amounts to Chapin’s personal account at JPMorgan
24 Chase Bank, N.A., on or about September 25, 2020, and then immediately wired $250,000 from 25 Chapin’s account to Defendant’s account at US Bank/RBC Capital Markets (the “Transfer”).

26           43.     Immediately prior to the transfer of Benja’s property to Chapin’s account as 27 described above, Chapin’s account had a balance of only $39.62.

28

44. Plaintiff is informed and believes that the Debtor was insolvent at all relevant times, including from September 4, 2020 through the Petition Date, such that the sum of the Debtor's debts was greater than all of the Debtor's property at a fair valuation, and/or that the Debtor was not generally paying its debts as they became due.

45. On October 1, 2020, Defendant sent a reply e-mail to Chapin recognizing Benja's fraud, as follows:

Andrew,
I'm moving into new house right now and can't talk, probly [sic] can later today.
Here's one thing I'll share - I don't think this has been handled well from several perspectives. I don't know all the facts. I know you spoke with Mike Birkel and I think that [Foppe] & I may be in line with his comments. That said, there are some simple facts that are disturbing and that people are very focused on.
The pdf's of Busey statements from early 2020 that you gave investors show for example large deposits from Backcountry.com. [Alouf] got a data export of all Busey transactions since the account was opened and those deposits don't show up in Busey's records. Thus the assumption is that the statements are forged. There is a pretty long list of open questions like this regarding past statements, forged names of other investors who claim not to have invested, etc. Who's your counsel at Wilson?
Tom

46. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, based on the information he had obtained, Defendant knew at the time the Transfer was made that his right to certain shares of Benja's capital stock under the 2020 SAFE was worthless or worth nowhere near the value he received from the Transfer. Moreover, whether Defendant knew that the interests held under the 2020 SAFE were worthless, those interests were in fact of no value at the time Defendant received payment for them.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Avoidance and Recovery of Preferential Transfer
11 U.S.C. § 547(b)

47. Plaintiff realleges each and every allegation set forth above and incorporates them by reference.

48. The Transfer was made within the 90 days before the voluntary petition was filed by the Debtor.

49. The Transfer was the transfer of an interest of the Debtor in property, was made to or for the benefit of the Defendant who was a creditor of the Debtor, was made on account of antecedent debt owed by the Debtor to the Defendant before the Transfer was made, was made

1 while the Debtor was insolvent, and enabled the Defendant to receive more than he would have
2 received if the Transfer had not been made, and the Defendant had received payment as provided
3 by the Bankruptcy Code.

4 Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff requests judgment as set forth below.

5 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
6 Avoidance of Actual Intent Fraudulent Transfer
7 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(A)

8 50. Plaintiff realleges each and every allegation set forth above and incorporates them
9 by reference.

10 51. The Debtor presently has one or more creditors whose claim arose either before or
11 after the Transfer to Defendant.

12 52. The Debtor made the Transfer to Defendant within two years before the Petition
13 Date.

14 53. The Transfer was a transfer of an interest of the Debtor in property, and was made
15 with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any entity to which the Debtor was indebted or 16 became indebted on or after the date the transfer(s) was made. See Hayes v. Palm Seedlings
17 Partners-A (In re Agric. Research & Tech. Grp., Inc.), 916 F.2d 528, 535 (9th Cir. 1990) (“[T]he
18 debtor’s actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud its creditors may be inferred from the mere
19 existence of a Ponzi scheme ... that knowledge that a transaction will operate to the detriment of 20 creditors is sufficient for actual intent”) (internal citations omitted).

21 54. Chapin was the initial transferee of the Transfer, who immediately transferred that
22 interest of the Debtor in property to Defendant. Such initial transfer is avoidable under 11 U.S.C.
23 §§ 544, 548, 550 and California Civil Code § 3439.04 et seq.

24 55. Because the initial transfer from Benja to Chapin is avoidable, Plaintiff may seek to
25 recover the Transfer or the value of such property against Defendant, who is the subsequent
26 transferee for whose benefit the Transfer was made.

27 56. The aggregate amount of the Transfer may be in excess of the above-stated amount,
28 and Plaintiff seeks avoidance and recovery of any and all additional transfers made as a part of the scheme.

1 Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff requests judgment as set forth below.

2 THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
3 Avoidance of Actual Intent Fraudulent Transfer
4 11 U.S.C. § 544(b), California Civil Code § 3439.04(a)(1) et seq.

5 57. Plaintiff realleges each and every allegation set forth above and incorporates them
6 by reference.

7 58. The Debtor presently has one or more creditors whose claim arose either before or
8 after the Transfer to Defendant.

9 59. Defendant obtained the Transfer as detailed above.

10 60. The Debtor made the Transfer to Defendant within four years before the Petition
11 Date.

12 61. The Transfer was a transfer of an interest of the Debtor in property, and was made
13 with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any entity to which the Debtor was indebted or
14 became indebted on or after the date the transfer(s) was made. See Hayes v. Palm Seedlings
15 Partners-A (In re Agric. Research & Tech. Grp., Inc.), 916 F.2d 528, 535 (9th Cir. 1990) (“[T]he
16 debtor’s actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud its creditors may be inferred from the mere
17 existence of a Ponzi scheme ... that knowledge that a transaction will operate to the detriment of 18 creditors is sufficient for actual intent”) (internal citations omitted).

19 62. Chapin was the initial transferee of the Transfer, who immediately transferred that
20 interest of the Debtor in property to Defendant. Such initial transfer is avoidable under 11 U.S.C.
21 §§ 544, 548, 550 and California Civil Code § 3439.04 et seq.

22 63. Because the initial transfer from Benja to Chapin is avoidable, Plaintiff may seek to
23 recover the Transfer or the value of such property against Defendant, who is the subsequent
24 transferee for whose benefit the Transfer was made.

25 64. The aggregate amount of the Transfer may be in excess of the above-stated amount,
26 and Plaintiff seeks avoidance and recovery of any and all additional transfers made as a part of the 27 scheme.

28 Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff requests judgment as set forth below.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Avoidance of Constructive Fraudulent Transfer
11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(B)

65. Plaintiff realleges each and every allegation set forth above and incorporates them by reference.

66. The Debtor presently has one or more creditors whose claim arose either before or after the Transfer to Defendant.

67. The Debtor made the Transfer to Defendant within two years before the Petition Date and the Transfer was a transfer of an interest of the Debtor in property.

68. The Debtor received less than a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the Transfer, as the interests represented by the 2020 SAFE repurchased from Defendant was of no value.

69. The Debtor made the Transfer at a time when the Debtor (a) was insolvent on the date(s) that the Transfer was made, or became insolvent as a result of the Transfer; (b) was engaged in business or a transaction, or was about to engage in business or a transaction, for which any property remaining with the Debtor was an unreasonably small capital; (c) intended to incur, or believed that the Debtor would incur, debts that would be beyond the Debtor's ability to pay as such debts matured; or (d) made the Transfer to or for the benefit of an insider, or incurred such obligation to or for the benefit of an insider, under an employment contract and not in the ordinary course of business.

70. Chapin was the initial transferee of the Transfer, who immediately transferred that interest of the Debtor in property to Defendant. Such initial transfer is avoidable under 11 U.S.C. §§ 544, 548, 550 and California Civil Code § 3439.04 et seq.

71. Because the initial transfer from Benja to Chapin is avoidable, Plaintiff may seek to recover the Transfer or the value of such property against Defendant, who is the subsequent transferee for whose benefit the Transfer was made.

72. The aggregate amount of the Transfer may be in excess of the above-stated amount, and Plaintiff seeks avoidance and recovery of any and all additional transfers made as a part of the scheme.

1 Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff requests judgment as set forth below.

2 FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
3 Avoidance of Constructive Fraudulent Transfer
4 11 U.S.C. § 544(b), California Civil Code § 3439.04(a)(2) et seq.

5 73. Plaintiff realleges each and every allegation set forth above, and incorporates them
6 by reference.

7 74. The Debtor presently has one or more creditors whose claim arose either before or
8 after the Transfer to Defendant.

9 75. The Debtor made the Transfer to Defendant within four years before the Petition
10 Date and the Transfer was a transfer of an interest of the Debtor in property.

11 76. The Debtor received less than a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the 12 Transfer, as the interests represented by the 2020 SAFE repurchased from Defendant was of no
13 value.

14 77. The Debtor made the Transfer at a time when the Debtor (a) was engaged or was 15 about to engage in a business or a transaction for which the remaining assets of the Debtor were 16 unreasonably small in relation to the business or transaction; or (b) intended to incur, or believed
17 or reasonably should have believed that the Debtor would incur, debts beyond the Debtor's ability
18 to pay as they became due.

19 78. Chapin was the initial transferee of the Transfer, who immediately transferred that
20 interest of the Debtor in property to Defendant. Such initial transfer is avoidable under 11 U.S.C.
21 §§ 544, 548, 550 and California Civil Code § 3439.04 et seq.

22 79. Because the initial transfer from Benja to Chapin is avoidable, Plaintiff may seek to
23 recover the Transfer or the value of such property against Defendant, who is the subsequent
24 transferee for whose benefit the Transfer was made.

25 80. The aggregate amount of the Transfer may be in excess of the above-stated amount,
26 and Plaintiff seeks avoidance and recovery of any and all additional transfers made as a part of the 27 scheme.

28 Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff requests judgment as set forth below.

1                                   SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
2                                   Declaratory Relief

3           81.     Plaintiff realleges each and every allegation set forth above and incorporates them
4 by reference.

5           82.     Plaintiff alleges that Benja was operated as a Ponzi scheme.

6           83.     To the extent Defendant disputes this contention, an actual controversy exists
7 between Plaintiff and Defendant concerning whether Benja was operated as a Ponzi scheme.

8           84.     Plaintiff desires a judicial determination and declaration of whether Benja was 9 operated as a Ponzi scheme. Such a judicial determination is necessary and appropriate to the 10 extent a controversy exists between Plaintiff and Defendant.

11                   Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff requests judgment as set forth below.

12                                   SEVENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
13                                   Disallowance of Claim
14                                   11 U.S.C. § 502(d)

15           85.     Plaintiff realleges each and every allegation set forth above and incorporates them
16 by reference.

17           86.     Plaintiff objects to any claim or claims that Defendant has filed or may file or has 18 asserted or may assert in this bankruptcy case unless Defendant has paid the amount, or turned 19 over any such property, for which Defendant is liable under 11 U.S.C. § 550.

20                   Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff requests judgment as set forth below.

21                                   REQUEST FOR RELIEF

22                   Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter judgment, as 23 follows:

24           A.     On the first claim for relief, for a judgment against the Defendant avoiding and 25 recovering the Transfer or the value of such property under 11 U.S.C. §§ 547(b) and 550 and 26 preserving the Transfer for the benefit of the estate under 11 U.S.C. § 551.

27           B.     On Plaintiff's second and third claims for relief, for judgment against Defendant
28 avoiding and recovering for the benefit of the estate the Transfer (and any other transfer that may be proved at trial) or the value of such property under 11 U.S.C. §§ 548 and 550, and preserving

1 those transfers for the benefit of the estate under 11 U.S.C. § 551.

2 C. On Plaintiff's fourth and fifth claims for relief, for a judgment against Defendant
3 avoiding the Transfer (and any other transfer to the Defendant that may be proved at trial) or the
4 value of such property under 11 U.S.C. §§ 544(b) and 550, and California Civil Code Sections 3439
5 et seq., and preserving those transfers for the benefit of the estate under 11 U.S.C. § 551.

6 D. On Plaintiff's sixth claim for relief, for equitable relief in the form of a judgment
7 against Defendant declaring that Benja was a Ponzi scheme.

8 E. On Plaintiff's seventh claim for relief, for disallowance of any claim in favor of the 9 Defendant in the Debtor's case until the Transfer identified above are returned to the estate.

10 F. For prejudgment interest and costs of suit.

11 G. For such other relief the Court deems appropriate.
